Facilitator's Biographies

Dr. Robert V. Gerard

Holistic Psychologist, author, lecturer, visionary healer and philosopher

Dr. Gerard began his working career as a civil engineer. Finding his interests lay with helping people, he completed a B. A. in Social Psychology at Florida Atlantic University (1978) and a M.S. in Management/Organizational Psychology at Nova University (1981). He attended the Ph.D. Adult Educational Program Management at Georgia State University (1983-85) and in the East-West Psychology Ph.D. at the California Institute for Integral Studies (1989-92). In 1998, he completed his Doctorate in Metaphysical and Spiritual Psychology at The College of Metaphysical Studies in Clearwater, Florida.

Gerard's work experience spans over forty-five years and crosses major industries including engineering, manufacturing, banking, education, therapeutics, and publishing. He has worked for major corporations, chaired an international convention, and spearheaded training programs worldwide.

His primary focuses are in Holistic Psychology, DNA Activations, and World Peace. Dr. Gerard sustains a private counseling practice in Holistic and Organizational Psychology, and offers lectures, seminars, and workshops on the DNA Healing Techniques, Verbal Confrontation Skills Training, and ZeRo Point Healing Technologies. He is internationally published, has written nine books, dozens of articles, and has produced several CDs available through the Foundation.
